

Funtastic Family Home Evenings
Easy to Prepare! Fun to Share!

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN

(Ages ~4 – 8)

PURPOSE

- To help young children learn safe habits in crossing the street
- To inspire family members to reach out to those in need

MATERIALS

- None

SUGGESTED SONG

- “I’ll Walk With You” page 140 Children’s Songbook

LESSON IDEAS

1. Ask your children, “What are three very important words to remember each time we cross the street?”
2. Show video, Stop, Look and Listen
  - a. Discuss the importance of crossing the street carefully
3. Explain that Jesus would often “stop, look and listen” to those around Him who needed help.
  - a. Read (or tell in your own words) the story in Matthew 20:29-34. Have them identify how Jesus stopped, looked and listened to the two blind men.
4. You may want to show your family the video, The Coat. This video is a true story from the life of Heber J. Grant.
  - a. Discuss how young Heber stopped, looked and listened to help a very needy boy.
  - b. You may also want to watch the video of what a group of girls did as a service project after they watched the video, The Coat.
5. Talk with your family about people in your ward, neighborhood or community that need help. You may want to plan a service project to help that person/family.
6. Testify to your family of how important it is to “stop, look and listen” to those around us who need our help.

ACTIVITY

- These are several fun and instructive Road Safety Games you may want to let your younger children play.