STRANGER DANGER

(Ages ~5 to 10)

PURPOSE

- To teach children how to make safe decisions when confronted by strangers

PREPARATION

- Prior to the lesson parents may want to watch the following video. A law enforcement officer (acting as a stranger) demonstrates how easily children can be tricked into going with strangers:
 - Stranger Danger
 - Stranger Danger cartoon
 - Protecting Yourself from Strangers

SUGGESTED SONG

- “Dare to Do Right” page 158 of the Children’s Songbook

LESSON IDEAS

1. Begin the lesson by giving your children this online quiz:
 - a. Street Smarts
2. Watch one or more of the videos below and discuss with wise decisions your children should make when they meet people they don’t know.
 - a. Billy to the Bus
 - b. Beat the Tricks
3. You may want to create different situations of strangers approaching them and let your children practice their responses.
4. Additional helpful information can be found on this website listed under the tab “Resource Library” (top of the page): Stranger Safety

ACTIVITY

- These are fun online games you may want to play with your family:
 - Younger children: Helipopper
 - Older children: Move It or Luge It!
